

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THE home of Mr. E. T. D. Myers, No. 115 West Franklin Street, was the scene of a beautiful reception yesterday afternoon and evening, when Mr. Lillian T. Myers entertained in honor of his niece, Miss Elizabeth Randolph Preston, Miss Frances Colquhoun Myers and Miss Barbara Colquhoun Triggs. Assisting the receiving party were Mrs. Mattie Paul Myers and Mr. E. T. D. Myers, Jr. Richmond roses in profusion decorated the whole lower floor, baskets and potted plants filled with blossoms were suspended in the hall and doorways, and arches of the roses and wild smilax framed the windows. In the dining room the centerpiece was a tall basket of Richmond roses, ferns and lilies of the valley, and from the chandelier smaller baskets were suspended by tulle of the same color.

The debutante guests of honor stood beside Mr. Myers. Miss Myers wore pompadour silk in the afternoon, Miss Triggs pale blue, trimmed in gold embroidery, and Miss Preston also was in blue. At the evening reception all three of the young ladies wore white. Mrs. Hobson in Pensacola.

Mrs. Corydon Hobson, well-known in Richmond as Miss Gertrude Skelton, is one of Pensacola's latest social acquisitions, and is very popular there.

Mrs. Hobson was one of the guests of honor recently at a beautiful reception given by Mrs. W. D. Chipley, Mrs. Dudley Chipley, Misses Bass, Covington, Hyer and Jones assisted in receiving.

Hirsch-Rosenbaum.
A pretty wedding, in which the color scheme was entirely green and white, was celebrated last evening at 7 o'clock in the Shenandoah Hotel, when Miss Corinne Rosenbaum became the bride of Mr. Sidney Hirsch, Dr. E. N. Calisch officiating.

The rooms, hung in an exquisite shade of dark green silk, were artistically decorated in masses of palm, Southern smilax, Easter lilies and white azaleas, garlands of the smilax draping the altar gates and festooning the windows. The large centerpiece in the dining room was formed of violets and lilies of the valley.

Miss Irma Rosenbaum, the bride's sister and maid of honor, wore a beautiful gown of white mesh, trimmed in applique and white and gold embroidery, and carried a sheath bouquet of purple violets and lilies of the valley.

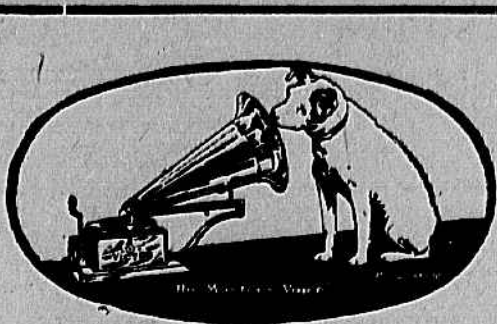

The bride was exquisitely gowned in white delectable satin, princess, heavily embroidered in panel effect, with sleeves and collar of rose point. Her veil was of point applique, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids and orange blossoms. She was given away by her brother, Mr. Morton Rosenbaum. Mr. Ben Hessberg was best man.

Among the out-of-town guests present at the wedding and reception held afterwards were Mrs. Max Guggenheimer, Mrs. C. M. Guggenheimer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hirsch, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lippman, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Lippman, of Savannah; Mr. and Mrs. J. Kaufman, Dr. and Mrs. J. Hirsch, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Wyman, Mrs. M. Prax, of Baltimore; Mr. Lewis Kaufman, Miss Bette Kaufman, of Danville; Mrs. J. Straus, of Norfolk; Mr. M. M. Straus, of New York, and Mrs. A. Koch, of Philadelphia.

Engagement of Interest.
Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Chesnut, formerly of Norfolk, now of Montgomery, Ala., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Louise, and Mr. Thomas Alexander Spencer, of Houston, Tex., formerly of Virginia. The wedding will be solemnized in early April.

This announcement from a Nashville paper will be read with much interest by Captain Spencer's many friends in this city and State. Especially in the social, club and military life in this city, with which he was prominently and popularly identified, will he receive hearty congratulations. Captain Spencer served as an officer in the Fourth Virginia Regiment during the Spanish War, and after the return and reorganization of the Blues was elected captain of Company B, remaining so until he resigned.

He is a member of two well-known Virginia families. His father, the late

Miss Holland Entertains.
Miss Ivy Holland was hostess on Saturday, when she entertained at a beautiful party given in her home in Suffolk.

The parlors were decorated in pink and green. A gaily luncheon was served the young guests at 10 o'clock.

Marriage—Sperry.
A beautiful home wedding was celebrated Wednesday morning in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sperry, near Bedford City, when their daughter, Miss Hettie Graves Sperry, and Mr. Hubert Martin, of Lynchburg, were married.

Promptly at 11 the bridal party, led by Miss Bette Long, crowned in white point d'esprit over silk, with Mr. Robert Caldwell, of Lynchburg.

Then followed the groom, with his brother, Mr. Louis Martin, as best man, and next came the bride in an exquisite toilet of taupe cloth, and hat and gloves to match, with her sister and maid of honor, Miss Jeanne Sperry, who was attired in cream albatross over silk.

Personal Mention.

GLASSES UNNECESSARY.
Eye Strain Relieved by Quitting Coffee.
Many cases of defective vision are caused by the habitual use of coffee. It is said that in Arabia, where coffee is used in large quantities, many lose their eyesight at about fifty.

A N. J. woman writes to the point concerning eye trouble and coffee. She says: "My son was for years troubled with his eyes. He used several kinds of glasses without relief. The optician said there was a defect in his eyes which was hard to reach."

"He used to drink coffee, as we all did, and finally quit it and began to use Postum. Three years ago. He has not had to wear glasses, and has had no trouble with his eyes since."

"I was always fond of tea and coffee, and finally became so nervous I could hardly sit still long enough to eat a meal. My heart was in such a condition I thought I might die any time. I was almost desperate. It was about this time we decided to quit coffee and use Postum, and have used it ever since. I am in perfect health. No trouble now with my heart, and never felt better in my life."

"Postum has been a great blessing to us all, particularly to my son and myself."

LOVE FINDS A WAY.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., January 27.—Believing that they were intended for each other, and that they could not overcome parental objection, Samuel W. Peaco, aged twenty-four, and Miss Alice Wingfield, aged fourteen, eloped yesterday from the home of the bride's father, Mr. John Wingfield, in this city.

Cupid's stratagem would have succeeded, but for the faithful appearance of the bride-to-be. No one would issue a license to this rosy-cheeked little girl, and the course of true love almost entirely lost its rosy aspect when the harsh hand of the law commenced, at the instance of the father in this city, to rattle their romance with questions, and finally to cause their detention by the authorities in Covington, Va., where they had gone by the command of the law and arrow god.

Never did love fail to find a way.

Blind Tigers in Trouble.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, Va., January 27.—Geo. R. Jones and Geo. Sanford, both white men, were convicted in the Mayor's Court to-day of selling whiskey without license, and the usual fine of $70 and a jail sentence of thirty days was imposed. Appeals were noted in both cases. The police are making an active crusade against blind tigers, and five cases, all of the accused being white, have been on the docket this week.

Hardwick-Umruh.
HEATHSVILLE, Va., January 27.—Miss Willie Umruh and Mr. Vincent Hardwick, both of Kinsale, Westmoreland county, were married at the home of the bride's uncle, in Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Hardwick will reside in Kinsale, where Mr. Hardwick is a prosperous young merchant.

MOTHER FINED ON IS ON TRIAL FOR DAUGHTER'S PLEA KILLING BROTHER

Woman Who Eloped With Son-in-Law Fails to Appear in Court.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., January 27.—In the Police Court this morning, although absent and her counsel claiming only that she was still in Norfolk, Eva Gordon was fined $50 and costs on a statutory offense, brought against her by her daughter, Mrs. Fred Sargent, who was also awarded the custody of the three-year-old son, Clarence M. Sargent.

Fred Sargent and Mrs. Gordon were arrested Sunday morning on "Granny Street." The woman is the grandmother of the little child in the case, and the father of the child, from whom his wife has been divorced, is Fred Sargent. They all hail from Laconia, N. H. Papers were submitted in the trial to show that while Mrs. Sargent had been divorced, the disability of the husband had not been removed.

The facts in the case are as follows: Mrs. Sargent sought a divorce from her husband and secured it; the court refusing to remove his disabilities. She was awarded a girl child, and the boy allowed to go to the father. Later, Mrs. Sargent learned that her husband and mother had left Laconia and came to Norfolk, where they were living together, and followed them. The case against Mr. Sargent will be heard next Wednesday.

Shocking Details Are Brought Out in Hearing of Henry Spinks.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WARRENTON, Va., January 27.—The trial of Henry Spinks, for killing his brother, William Spinks, at Hopewell, in November last, was begun to-day in the Circuit Court, Judge E. S. Turner presiding. Spinks is being defended by Messrs. B. D. Richards and G. L. Fletcher, and the prosecution is being conducted by Commonwealth's Attorney J. A. C. Keith. The trial will probably consume three days.

The details brought out so far are shocking in the extreme.

Negro Found Guilty.
The trial of Stephen Nash, the young negro, who, while resisting arrest in November, by Assistant Sergeant A. B. Rush, and was consequently shot by him, took place to-day, Judge E. S. Turner presiding. Messrs. J. D. Richards and G. L. Fletcher are appearing for the defense and Commonwealth's Attorney J. A. C. Keith for the prosecution. The verdict was light, being sixty days in the county jail and a fine of $25. The case has caused much interest in the community.
